Beechwood Primary School

Home-School Agreement

At Beechwood Primary School:

Each child's education, welfare, health and happiness is at the core of a partnership between teachers, support staff, parents/carers and the child.

We prepare children for life; equipping them to be thoughtful citizens, life-long independent thinkers and learners who can confidently face the challenges of the technological world.

High standards will be achieved in an atmosphere of friendly co-operation in which each individual is valued.
