| How we identify special educational learning needs as a school and how we seek the views, opinions and voice of pupils and their parents in planning to meet them. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • When pupils have identified SEND before they start here, we work with the people who already know them and use the information they already have available to manage the particular needs within a mainstream setting • If you tell us you think your child has SEN, we will discuss this with you and investigate. We will share with you what we find out and agree next steps with you as to how we can all help your child. We follow the Graduated Approach carefully, ensuring the 'assess, plan do and review' stages are implemented. • If your child does not appear to be making the same level of progress, whether academic, social or emotional, as other children of their age, we will undertake assessment in school and if appropriate, consult outside agencies, to identify possible barriers to their learning. Parents and carers will be involved at all stages. • We are child and family centred so you will be consulted in all decision making about your child's support. • We will ensure that Parents are given the details for Halton SEND Partnership where they can access additional advice and support if necessary. • When we assess pupils, we discuss if specific issues and behaviours presented are the same at school and at home; we take this into account and work with you so that we are all helping your child in the same way. • We will write individual support plans with pupils and parents / carers, which will be reviewed regularly. • We use differentiated homework tasks to repeat |

| | and practise activities that are new and present an achievable challenge. |
| What extra support we bring in to help us meet SEND: specialist services, external expertise and how we work together. For example, health, social care, local authority support services and voluntary sector organisations. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • When necessary, we receive support from specialist and professional agencies, including specialist teachers from the SEN assessment team, who provide training for our staff; advise on strategies and programmes and will make referrals for further assessments, if we believe they support the child. • The SENCO attends half termly Group Consultations, led by two Educational Psychologists and various other agencies such as the Hearing Improvement Team (HIT) and CAMHS, where individual pupils are discussed and advice is given, and strategies shared with the SENCO or school staff attending • Where appropriate we can access additional input for specific needs e.g. speech, language and communication, visual and hearing impairment, behaviour related difficulties, autism spectrum conditions, moderate / severe learning difficulties. • We can access support from local authority services and local special schools who provide outreach. • We can access support from occupational therapy and physiotherapy for pupils who require this input and specific resources. We also get support from a school nurse who produces care plans for pupils with medical needs. Where appropriate we hold multi-agency meetings with parents, and seek the pupils view to review the child's progress. At these meetings we consider such things as: actions to support learning, targets for achievement and agree ways to work together. A review date is always set to evaluate progress. This information is recorded to ensure accountability. |

SEND Broad Areas of Need

| Communication and Interaction | |
|--------------------------------------|--|
| 6.28 | Children and young people with speech, language and communication needs (SLCN) have difficulty in communicating with others. This may be because they have difficulty saying what they want to, understanding what is being said to them or they do not understand or use social rules of communication. The profile for every child with SLCN is different and their needs may change over time. They may have difficulty with one, some or all of the different aspects of speech, language or social communication at different times of their lives. |
| 6.29 | Children and young people with ASD, including Asperger's Syndrome and Autism, are likely to have particular difficulties with social interaction. They may also experience difficulties with language, communication and imagination, which can impact on how they relate to others. |

| Cognition and Learning | |
|-------------------------------|---|
| 6.30 | Support for learning difficulties may be required when children and young people learn at a slower pace than their peers, even with appropriate differentiation. Learning difficulties cover a wide range of needs, including moderate learning difficulties (MLD), severe learning difficulties (SLD), where children are likely to need support in all areas of the curriculum and associated difficulties with mobility and communication, through to profound and multiple learning difficulties (PMLD), where children are likely to have severe and complex learning difficulties as well as a physical disability or sensory impairment. |
| 6.31 | Specific learning difficulties (SpLD), affect one or more specific aspects of learning. This encompasses a range of conditions such as dyslexia, dyscalculia and dyspraxia. |

| Social, Emotional and Mental Health difficulties | |
|---|---|
| 6.32 | Children and young people may experience a wide range of social and emotional difficulties which manifest themselves in many ways. These may include becoming withdrawn or isolated, as well as displaying challenging, disruptive or disturbing behaviour. These behaviours may reflect underlying mental health difficulties such as anxiety or depression, self-harming, substance misuse, eating disorders or physical symptoms that are medically unexplained. Other children and young people may have disorders such as attention deficit disorder, attention deficit hyperactive disorder or attachment disorder. |

| Sensory and/or Physical Needs | |
|--------------------------------------|--|
| 6.34 | Some children and young people require special educational provision because they have a disability which prevents or hinders them from making use of the educational facilities generally provided. These difficulties can be age related and may fluctuate over time. Many children and young people with vision impairment (VI), hearing impairment (HI) or a multi-sensory impairment (MSI) will require specialist support and/or equipment to access their learning, or habilitation support. Children and young people with an MSI have a combination of vision and hearing difficulties. Information on how to provide services for deafblind children and young people is available through the Social Care for Deafblind Children and Adults guidance published by the Department of Health (see the References section under Chapter 6 for a link). |
| 6.35 | Some children and young people with a physical disability (PD) require additional ongoing support and equipment to access all the opportunities available to their peers. |
